Shepreth Wildlife Park in Royston is 3 miles up the road, 10 minutes by car, has a host of wildlife to see and is best booked on line. Visit sheprethwildlifepark.co.uk for all the details.

That's just a few things to do while you're here but we're sure you will find more.

Please note: We won't have the use of the Village Hall during our stay due to restrictive hire charges.

Thursday 21st: Evening: Settle in and have a catch-up and favourite tippie with your friends.

Friday 22nd: A whole day of freedom to take advantage of all there is to see in the area, the Aircraft Museum or Cambridge maybe? Alternatively just relax and chill out.

Saturday 23rd: Daytime: Another chill out day.

Evening: A communal barbeque with bangers & burgers cooked and served up for you to add your own accompaniments, you'll need your plates and cutlery as well.

Sunday 24th: Another whole day of chilling, you'll be so relaxed when you return home, almost permanently horizontal!!

Monday 25th Flagpole will be held at a convenient time during our stay and please be off site by 2pm. We wish you a safe tug or chug home.
