This is our annual Valentines Event and this year it's in the little village of Hothfield, 3 miles north-west of Ashford, Kent. One of the main attractions in Hothfield is the Hothfield Common, which is a designated Site of Special Scientific Interest. The common covers an area of 165 acres and is home to a variety of wildlife, including rare species of birds, butterflies, and plants. It is a popular destination for walkers and nature enthusiasts, with several footpaths and bridleways crisscrossing the area.

Event opens on Friday 13th Feb at 4.30pm

Friday The hall will be open in the evening for a natter with friends with background music.

Saturday

Daytime: Ashford is a 15 min drive away (4 miles) if you fancy shopping or if you fancy a walk then Hothfield Heathland is nearby.

Afternoon Around 3pm there will be social activities organised in the hall.

Evening: PLEASE WEAR SOMETHING RED FOR THE EVENING (SOMETHING VISIBLE NOT UNDERWEAR!)

Takeaway fish & chips will be collected to order for a communal meal in the hall at around 6.00 pm. This cost is not included in the rally fee. A desert will be provided and is included.

Please bring your plates & cutlery and bowls for desert if you prefer not eating from the wrapper, the table or your lap??

The food will be followed by music to dance to with your loved one or perhaps sharing someone else's loved one with permission of course.

With no intention of spoiling the evening Flag Pole will interject at some point??

Sunday: Please kindly be off site by midday latest and have a safe journey home.
